Editors note: Not much to say except that this is my last newsletter. Derek Cox will be taking over starting with the next (July) newsletter. If you wish to contribute something (an article, pictures, etc.), consider sending him your input. His e-mail address is dlcdragon@hotmail.com.

I have enjoyed my time with the newsletter, covering a lot of events (but I also missed a good number), mostly based upon my distance in miles and time from Fredericksburg. I wish I could have been to everything and provided a photo history of my past 5 or six years at it. I know that Derek will do a good job and wish him all the luck in his forthcoming effort.
